1. [REDACTED] I was advised that the family of [REDACTED] has been receiving a series of anonymous telephone calls and have been subject to some harrassment from people in their neighborhood. The reason for this is not known. I called the Office of Security and asked that they make certain that [REDACTED] has full assistance and protection and that action be taken to stop this annoyance. (Security later advised me they were in touch with the police and that protective efforts are definitely in being.)
